

What we need to know in order to be profitable

- Each servant knew the master
- He gave to all his servants
- They all received something from the master
- They knew exactly what the master gave them
- They knew their amounts were different
- They all were given time for action
- They all had to answer and give a report.